Homeless to Harvard

Doug Luffborough's life is a tale of inspiration and hope for overcoming the crisis of poverty. Raised by his single mother in an impoverished environment with three younger siblings, he overcame fatherlessness, gang involvement and homelessness in his senior year of high school. Through his faith, discipline, action and hard work, Doug was able to achieve his ambition of becoming the first in his family to attend college. He went on to receive his master's degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and is currently a Ph.D. candidate at USD's School of Leadership and Education Sciences. Tirelessly devoted to youth development and family empowerment, Doug has spent over 20 years working with nonprofit organizations and school districts as an educational consultant and advocate for social change.
